

Survey of 2016 Congress Alumni DELEGATES

You feel more connected to your parents after attending the Congress.

★★★★★
4.6 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  91.8%
No

You are more willing to embrace failure.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  94.8%
No

Would you recommend the Congress to a friend?

★★★★★
4.8 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  96.15%
No

The Congress made you feel good about yourself.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  94.65%
No

You have new goals as a result of attending the Congress.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  93.7%
No

Going to the Congress helped you realize how many people there are like you.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  93.15%
No

The Congress gave you new tools or resources to help you achieve your goals.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  94.9%
No

You feel better able to make decisions on your own.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  94.5%
No

You felt that the Award of Excellence gave you recognition for your talents.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  93.2%
No

You are more excited about your future.

★★★★★
4.8 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  96.1%
No

You made new friends at the Congress.

★★★★★
4.5 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  90.3%
No

You feel better able to connect with people your age after attending the Congress.

★★★★★
4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  95%
No

You are more confident that you can achieve your goals as a result of attending the Congress.

★★★★★
4.8 stars out of 5 stars

Yes  95.4%
No

You are ready to set bigger goals than you ever have before.

★★★★★
4.9 stars out of 5 stars

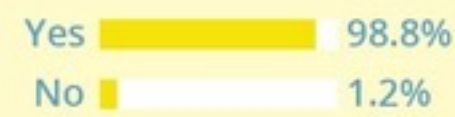

Yes  97.9%
No

Survey of 2016 Congress Alumni PARENTS

You feel more connected to your child now than you did before attending the Congress.

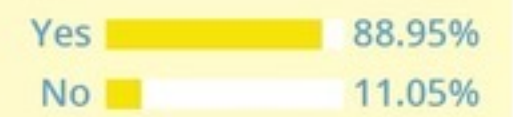

4.9 stars out of 5 stars

Your child's self confidence has increased.

4.5 stars out of 5 stars

Would you recommend the Congress to a friend?

4.8 stars out of 5 stars

Your child made new friends at the Congress.

4.3 stars out of 5 stars

You have a much clearer understanding of what your child is capable of than you did before attending the Congress.

4.5 stars out of 5 stars

Your child acquired new tools and resources at the Congress.

4.7 stars out of 5 stars

You now see a future for your child that is bigger than you ever imagined.

4.4 stars out of 5 stars

The Congress was a good value for the investment.

4.6 stars out of 5 stars

Your child is more goal-oriented than he or she was before attending the Congress.

4.4 stars out of 5 stars

You feel that supporting your child in attending the Congress was something very important that you did for your child.

4.7 stars out of 5 stars

Your child is more excited about his or her future now than before attending the Congress.

4.5 stars out of 5 stars

Survey Methodology

Parent and student attendees at the 2016 Congress of Future Medical Leaders and Congress of Future Science and Technology Leaders were invited to participate in a survey approximately 1 month after they attended the Congress. The online survey instrument and methodology were designed and executed by an independent research firm headed by a PhD sociologist.